No. 38/ 2022

The Embassy of the Federative Republic of Brazil presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade, Regional Integration and Diaspora Matters of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and has the honour to refer to the Technical Cooperation Agreement signed in Kingstown on June 7, 2017 between the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil and the Government of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

The National Congress approved, through Legislative Decree No.144, of October 13, 2022, published in the Official Gazette No.196, of October 14, 2022, the text of the said Technical Cooperation Agreement.

As provided for in paragraph 1 of Article 11, each Party will notify the other, through diplomatic channels, of the fulfilment of the internal legal formalities necessary for the entry into force of the Agreement, which will enter into force thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the last of these notifications.

The Embassy would also appreciate to receive information on the progress of the proceedings with the Government of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

The Embassy of the Federative Republic of Brazil avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade, Regional Integration and Diaspora Matters of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines the assurances of its highest consideration.

Bridgetown, November 16, 2022

TECHNICAL COOPERATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERATIVE REPUBLIC OF BRAZIL

The Government of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and The Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil (Hereinafter referred to as the "Parties")

Aiming at strengthening the existing ties of friendship between their peoples;

Considering the mutual interest in endowing the social and economic development of both countries;

Convinced of the need to promote the sustainable development of cooperation between the Parties;

Recognizing the reciprocal advantages of technical cooperation in areas of common interest; and

Willing to develop cooperation that stimulate technical progress,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The aim of the present Agreement is promoting technical cooperation in priority areas determined by the Parties.

Article 2

In pursuing the goals of the present Agreement, Parties may benefit from trilateral cooperation mechanisms, by means of triangular partnership with other countries, international organizations and regional agencies.

Article 3

1. The projects of technical cooperation shall be implemented through Complementary Agreements, consistent with established national laws.
2. The executing and coordinating institutions and other components that are necessary for implementing the aforementioned projects shall also be established through Complementary Agreements.
3. Public and private sector institutions, as well as non-governmental organizations, may participate in the projects to be developed under this Agreement, as agreed upon in the project documents.
4. In accordance with their respective national laws and regulations, the Parties shall, jointly or separately, finance the implementation of the projects approved and they may also seek funding from international organizations, trust funds, regional and international programs and other donors in accordance with their national legislations and established national processes.

Article 4

1. Meetings between representatives of the Parties shall be held in order to address issues that are pertinent to technical cooperation projects, such as:
 - a) evaluating and establishing common priority areas suitable for the implementation of technical cooperation:

- b) establishing mechanisms and procedures to be adopted by the Parties;
- c) reviewing and approving Work Plans;
- d) analysing, approving and following the implementation of technical cooperation programs, projects and activities; and
- e) evaluating the results of the execution of the programs, projects and activities implemented under the present Agreement.

2. The place and date of the meetings shall be agreed by the Parties through diplomatic channels.

Article 5

Documents, information and any knowledge generated as a result of the implementation of this Agreement will be protected according to the applicable internal legislation of each Party.

Article 6

Each Party shall provide the personnel sent by the other Party under the present Agreement with the necessary logistical support related to their accommodation, facilities of transportation, access to the information necessary for carrying out their duties, to be specified in the project documents, and in accordance with their respective national laws and regulations.

Article 7

1. Based upon reciprocity of treatment, each Party shall grant to the personnel appointed by the other Party to carry out their duties in its territory, as well as to their legal dependants, if any, provided that they are not citizens of the Parties in their territory or foreigners with permanent residence in the territory of the Parties the following:

- a) visas, in accordance with the Parties' national legislation, requested through diplomatic channels;
- b) exemption of customs duties, taxes and other levies that are imposed on personal belongings, during the first six months of stay, except for any taxes related to storage, transportation or other similar services, which are intended for initial settlement, when the period of legal stay in the host country exceeds one year. Such personal belongings shall be re-exported at the end of the mission, unless the import taxes from which they were originally exempted are paid;
- c) same exemption and restrictions as those provided for under item "b" of this Article, when the aforementioned goods are being re-exported;
- d) exemption from income taxes on salaries paid when employed by institutions from the Party that sent them. In the case of remuneration and per diem paid by the host institutions, the law of the host country shall apply, in compliance with double taxation agreements that may have been signed between the Parties;
- e) immunity from legal prosecution with regard to any actions carried out under this Agreement; and
- f) repatriation facilities on a crisis situation.

2. When personal belongings, including motor vehicles are not re-exported, their owners are obliged to pay customs duties, taxes and other duties levied on imports.

3. The selection of personnel shall be done by the sending Party and must be approved by the receiving Party.

Article 8

The personnel sent to the territory of the other Party under the present Agreement shall act in accordance with the terms and conditions of each project, and shall be subject to the laws and regulations of the host country.

Article 9

1. Goods, motor vehicles and equipment imported for the projects implemented under this Agreement and mutually approved by the Parties in the project documents shall be exempt from custom duties, taxes and other duties, except for costs with storage, transportation and similar services, in accordance with the respective national legislation of the Parties.

2. At the conclusion of the projects, all the goods, motor vehicles and equipment which have not been donated to the other Party by the providing Party shall be re-exported with similar customs duties, taxes and other duties levied on imports.

3. In case of imports and exports of the goods, motor vehicles and equipment used for the implementation of the projects under the present Agreement, the public institution in charge of the implementation of those projects shall take necessary measures to fulfill the custom clearance of the goods, motor vehicles and equipment.

Article 10

Any dispute related to the interpretation or application of the present Agreement shall be amicably settled by direct negotiations between the Parties, through diplomatic channels.

Article 11

1. Each Party shall notify the other, through diplomatic channels, that the domestic legal requirements necessary for entry into force of this Agreement have been fulfilled. The Agreement shall be effective thirty (30) days after the last written notification has been received.

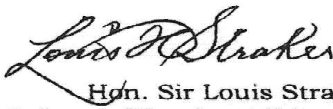

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years. Thereafter it shall be automatically extended for successive equal periods, unless either of the Parties notifies the other Party, through diplomatic channels, of its intention to terminate the Agreement. Termination will be effective six (6) months after the receipt of such notification.

3. In the case of termination of the present Agreement, the Parties shall decide which activities, including the triangular cooperation with third states, should be continued or not.

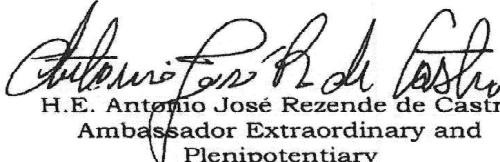

4. This Agreement may be amended by mutual consent of the Parties. Amendments shall enter into force in accordance with the procedures referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Done in Kingstown, on the 7th of June 2017, in duplicate, in the Portuguese and English languages, all texts being equally authentic. In case of any divergence of interpretation, the English text shall prevail.
