Gazette of Sovereign Declaration

Kwaji:Yä Knögé National Grounds Published in the Gazette of Ancestral Stewardship
Date: April 7, 2026 Region: Yurumie Island Republic Territory, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines

Introduction

Kwaji:Yä Knögé is a sovereign Indigenous nation established upon ancestral grounds in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines. Rooted in covenant between Creator, Earth, and People, it embodies both sanctuary and community - dedicated to cultural renewal, ecological stewardship, and sustainable lifeways through the Living Earth Project. Its governance flows from ceremony and consensus, guided by Elders and Guardians, and its sovereignty is affirmed under allodial title, ancestral law, and international recognition of Indigenous rights. Kwaji:Yä Knögé stands as living proof that remembrance and renewal can restore balance between humanity and the land.

Declaration of Allodial Ownership and Sovereign Title

Coordinates: 13°14'21" N, 61°10'40" W Extent: 600 acres, defined by boundary markers A-K
Issued by: Sanctum Tribal Trust, Office of the Founding Trustee

Article I: Recognition of Ancestral Rights

"We, the Original and Living People of the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation, reclaim, regenerate, and protect our ancestral lands, sacred sites, and means of life-under allodial title, free of external dominion or taxation."

This declaration reaffirms sovereignty under customary law, natural right, and international recognition of Indigenous Peoples' rights.

Article II: Purpose and Intent

The declaration establishes:

- Reclamation of Indigenous Tribal Lands
- Food Sovereignty and Resource Sharing
- Decolonisation and Territorial Renewal
- Protection against Unlawful Acts and Claims
- Restoration of Sacred Relations to the Land

Article III: Interim Territorial Protection

Pending formal delimitation and demarcation, the lands are placed under Interim Territorial Protection by the Council of Elders and the Protector of the Trust.

No third party-state, corporate, or private-shall encroach, extract, or alienate these lands without the free, prior, and informed consent of the Nation.

Article IV: Rights and Restoration

The declaration asserts:

- Right to Restitution of Ancestral Territory
- Right to Basic Services and Development within self-governed lands
- Right to Exercise Spiritual Relations with the territory and sacred sites
- Protection from Forced Displacement or Disturbance

These provisions reflect Articles 25-32 of UNDRIP and are rooted in the Nation's own law of Kwaji:Yä - the living covenant between People, Earth, and Spirit.

Article V: Statement from the Founding Trustee

"This declaration is not merely a claim," said Yanaru Hawahkan, Founding Trustee of the Sanctum Tribal Trust. "It is a restoration of balance. The land is alive and remembers us. Our duty is to protect her, feed her, and live true within her care."

Motto

Live true & die free
